

Thank You for making the 2019 CEA-Wisconsin Training Day, Education: The Path Forward, successful!

The Board of CEA-Wisconsin would like to thank all the attendees, presenters, vendors and Silent Auction donors for making the 2019 CEA-Wisconsin Training Day, "Education: The Path Forward," a success.

training day participants got to choose from 20 different breakout sessions

At the luncheon, Laurie Jarvis was honored for her selection as Wisconsin and Region III Teacher of the Year.

Many of the conference participants bid on 43 items that were donated by businesses, individuals and correctional facilities for the Silent Auction. All proceeds from the Silent Auction will be used to help support CEA-Wisconsin initiatives to provide professional development opportunities for correctional educators.

Five vendors displayed the latest in education and technology products that can be used to instruct correctional students. The CEA-Wisconsin Board would like to thank:

- Essential Education - Rich Palmer
- New Readers Press - Ann Beeson
- Data Recognition Corporation - Michele Ruszkowski
- GED Testing Service - Scott Salesses
- Miller Electric Manufacturing - Steven D Hidden

Thank all of you for your support of CEA-Wisconsin's efforts to strengthen the skills of correctional educators and support effective and innovative educational programming.

At our July meeting, the Board of CEA-Wisconsin will begin planning next year's professional development event. Keep an eye on the CEA-Wisconsin newsletter and this website for information as the plan develops.
